The road picnic at the Meister place last Saturday was not as successful as it should have been on account of the wet and cold weather, and the push of the farmers in sewing wheat.

A democratic exchange in rejoicing over the change in the national administration says it is satisfied because the change has removed their democratic postmaster, who owned and operated a profitable business, but refused to patronize in the way of advertising, job work or subscription, the only democratic paper in the county, and it heartily rejoiced in his being succeeded by a republican.

A writer for the London Financial Times commences an article on the United States as follows: "The Americans are now engaged on a census which is to be, like most other American institutions, phenomenal. It will be creation all round, and prove the Americans to be not only the greatest nation on the face of the earth, but the most favored of Providence and the worthiest of it. In mining, manufacturing and money-making at large, Jonathan is to walk away from all of us."

McFadden-Schwartztrauber.

At high noon, on Tuesday, September 16, at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 514 East High street, by the Rev. Mr. Schneider of the Lutheran church, Miss Clara M. Schwartztrauber and Mr. George A. McFadden were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

"To love, to bliss, their blended souls were given,
And each, too happy, asked no brighter heaven."

The ceremony was beautiful and impressive. The bride was married in travelling dress and the couple took the afternoon train for the east.

Miss Clara, who has long been admired by her friends for her noble qualities of heart and head, never looked lovelier than on this, her wedding day. May this life, which at best is but a fleeting shadow, be filled with love and happy hours for her from the beginning to the end, is the earnest wish of every friend.

May the hand of time bear lightly on her; may she be spared deep sorrow and may she be supremely happy are hopes that go with her on her bridal tour.

Mr. George McFadden is a most worthy and exemplary young man. He is one of the most promising young business men in our city, and has the respect, esteem and confidence of all that know him. THE REPUBLICAN extends to this worthy young couple its sincere congratulations, and joins with their other friends in hope that life may be to them the realization that:

"There is nothing half so sweet in life,
As love's young dream."

The beautiful repast was enjoyed by the invited guests, and the many beautiful and costly presents were high testimonials of the great esteem in which the happy couple are held.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. For sale at A. Brandenberger's drug store.

Seed Wheat for Sale.

I have placed sample of seed wheat at the grocery store of John N. Doehla, of which I have a number of bushels for sale at my farm, four miles east of Jefferson City. Price, Fultz wheat, $1.25 per bushel. This wheat averaged this year over thirty bushels to the acre.
